Transit Information

This Transit Guide has been developed in order to inform the public of the availability and interconnections of transit services throughout the San Francisco Bay Region. The Guide contains information on regularly scheduled transit services provided by public and private transit operators. Not included here are transit services provided by social services agencies, subscription or charter services or other specialized or occasional transit services.

The large map depicts major regional trunkline services and local service areas of the larger operators. The small maps depict major routes and terminals serving downtown San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose. The text describes the services provided by each operator.

All information contained in this Guide is effective September, 1978. Updates of the Guide will be made periodically. However, individuals are encouraged to contact transit operators at the numbers listed to obtain detailed system maps and the latest schedules and information.

Airport Connection

AC Transit

AC Transit operates bus service in most of Alameda and Contra Costa counties. AC Transit buses connect with AMTRAK and BART stations in the East Bay and with Golden Gate Transit, SamTrans, and SF Muni at the Transbay Terminal in San Francisco; buses also connect with Santa Clara County Transit at BART/Fremont and with SamTrans at BART/Hayward. AC Transit operates contract services in Concord, Pleasant Hill, Moraga/Oroinda, Eastern Contra Costa County (Pittsburg, Antioch, Brentwood) and Western Contra Costa County (Pinole, Hercules, Rodeo, Crockett).

Buses in most areas operate seven days a week. Modified service is provided on Saturday, Sunday and holidays, and also in some contract service areas on weekdays. Buses in most areas generally run from 8 to 30 minutes apart during weekday commute hours, and from 15 minutes to hourly midday and evenings.

Basic fare is 35¢ on local lines with additional zone charges for longer trips on intercity express buses. Transbay fares range from 75¢ to $1.25. A Sunday and holiday excursion fare and shop-around pass are available. Senior citizens and certified* handicapped can ride local lines for 10¢ and transbay lines for 30¢ to 40¢ except during commute hours.

For sporting events service is provided to the Oakland Coliseum, Golden Gate Fields and UC Berkeley Stadium. A bicycle bus operates from Oakland's Lake Merritt to San Francisco on weekends and holidays. Information numbers listed below.

Angel Island

Ferry boats operate daily between Angel Island and Tiburon from 10 am to 6 pm during the summer months. Winter operations are limited to weekend and holiday service on an hourly basis from 10 am to 4 pm. Round-trip fare is $1.75. (415) 435-2131. (Berkeley Ferry—See Harbor Carriers)

AC Transit

AC Transit operates bus service in most of Alameda and Contra Costa counties. AC Transit buses connect with AMTRAK and BART stations in the East Bay and with Golden Gate Transit, SamTrans, and SF Muni at the Transbay Terminal in San Francisco; buses also connect with Santa Clara County Transit at BART/Fremont and with SamTrans at BART/Hayward. AC Transit operates contract services in Concord, Pleasant Hill, Moraga/Orinda, Eastern Contra Costa County (Pittsburg, Antioch, Brentwood) and Western Contra Costa County (Pinole, Hercules, Rodeo, Crockett). Buses in most areas operate seven days a week. Modified service is provided on Saturday, Sunday and holidays, and also in some contract service areas on weekdays. Buses in most areas generally run from 8 to 30 minutes apart during weekday commute hours, and from 15 minutes to hourly midday and evenings. Basic fare is 35¢ on local lines with additional zone charges for longer trips on intercity express buses. Transbay fares range from 75¢ to $1.25. A Sunday and holiday excursion fare and shop-around pass are available. Senior citizens and certified* handicapped can ride local lines for 10¢ and transbay lines for 30¢ to 40¢ except during commute hours. For sporting events service is provided to the Oakland Coliseum, Golden Gate Fields and UC Berkeley Stadium. A bicycle bus operates from Oakland's Lake Merritt to San Francisco on weekends and holidays. Information numbers listed below.

Angel Island

Ferry boats operate daily between Angel Island and Tiburon from 10 am to 6 pm during the summer months. Winter operations are limited to weekend and holiday service on an hourly basis from 10 am to 4 pm. Round-trip fare is $1.75. (415) 435-2131. (Berkeley Ferry—See Harbor Carriers)

BART

Three BART lines (Richmond-Fremont, Daly City-Fremont, and Concord-Daly City) connect 34 stations in San Francisco, Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. Transfer stations are MacArthur and 12th Street/City Center Stations in Oakland. Passengers traveling between Daly City and Richmond (and Daly City to Fremont after 6 pm and on Sunday) must transfer at 12th Street or MacArthur stations in Oakland. BART operates Monday thru Saturday from 6 am to midnight. Trains run approximately 12 minutes apart during the day and 20 minutes apart after 6 pm. On Sunday, trains run from 9 am to midnight every 15 minutes until 6 pm and every 20 minutes thereafter. One-way fares range from 25¢ to $1.45. Change machines accept coins and $1 bills only. Discount tickets for children, certified* handicapped and senior citizens must be purchased at local banks, not at BART stations. In San Francisco and Daly City stations, Muni transfers are available. AC Transit transfers are available from BART stations in East Bay areas served by AC Transit. A BART bicycle permit allows cyclists to take bicycles on BART during specified non-commute hours on weekdays and all day on weekends. All stations are equipped with elevators for the handicapped. Information numbers are listed below.

BART Express Bus Service

BART Express Buses (using AC Transit vehicles) connect outlying East Bay communities with BART: Alamo, Danville, Dublin, San Ramon to Walnut Creek Station; Dublin, Pleasanton, Livermore to Hayward and Bayfair Stations; Martinez, Pittsburg, Antioch, Oakley, Brentwood to Concord Station; and Pinole to El Cerrito Del Norte Station. Buses operate Monday thru Saturday and on holidays when BART is operating. Buses run between approximately 5 am and midnight, although some lines only operate during commute hours. Buses run about 30 minutes apart during commute hours and approximately hourly at other times. Fares are 25¢ per zone (50¢ maximum). Children, senior citizens and certified* handicapped are 10¢ per zone (20¢ maximum). Information numbers are listed below.
